

Louisiana's Most Endangered Places 2023

Nomination Form

Submission Deadline: Sunday, March 5, 2023

The Louisiana Trust for Historic Preservation (LTHP) needs your help to identify historic places within the state considered to be at risk of being lost or degraded. To date, over 150 unique historic places have been listed since 1999.

Criteria for consideration for listing:

- Nominated property is historic (at least 50 years old; younger if notably unique) and significantly threatened by direct demolition, demolition by neglect, or other threat.
- There is reasonable potential for a positive outcome to prevent demolition and for rehabilitation and repurpose.

Complete and return the Nomination Form and up to 5 photographs through this form. Quality photographs of the exterior and interior (if practical) are needed to show the current physical condition of the nominated historic property. Older photographs reflecting the nominated historic property are suggested, but not required.

The listing of a site as a Louisiana's Most Endangered Place is not accompanied by a cash grant but can increase awareness of the importance of the site and its threats, when applying for grants or requesting donations for the project. LTHP will issue a press release for the annual announcement of sites added to the list, advocate for creative solutions to save the properties and invest staff time for site visits and monitoring of the threats, where possible.

Submitted nominations are not returnable and submission provides the right by LTHP to use all submitted material on websites, in print, and in media.

For more information or questions or to submit your nomination, contact Clay Omainsky at 225-930-0936 or comainsky@lthp.org or mail to PO Box 1587 Baton Rouge, LA 70821 by Sunday March 5, 2023.
